

“Hollywood To Broadway” Debuts on The Standards Channel.

Emmy™-nominated actor, John Gabriel, will host weekly radio show honoring the contributions from stage and screen to The Great American Songbook.

(Branson, MO) -- Saturday June 30, 2012 marks the debut of “Hollywood To Broadway” to the weekly program line-up on TheStandardsChannel.com. Veteran actor John Gabriel is the host of this fast paced show honoring legends of song such as Irving Berlin, Johnny Mercer, Cole Porter, Sammy Cahn and other lyrical luminaries who forever etched a place in our musical consciousness with songs they wrote for some of the biggest musicals to ever hit stage and screen.

Mixed with the music are anecdotes about the songs, songwriters and the renowned voices forever associated with many of these time honored tunes, such as Ella Fitzgerald, Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett and the occasional surprise or two.

“Hollywood To Broadway” will air each Saturday and Sunday at Noon eastern, and repeats each Wednesday night at 8 Eastern. The inaugural broadcast is A Salute to America, that episode will air June 30 and July 1, 2012 at Noon Eastern. The Fourth of July episode will also be rebroadcast on Independence Day at Noon and 8 pm Eastern.

The Standards Channel is a 24/7 oasis for lovers of The Great American Songbook across the nation and the world. The station is based in Branson, MO and operated by veteran network radio personality and executive, Jim Raposa. It can be heard via its stream at www.TheStandardsChannel.com and via free apps for i-Pad, i-Phone and Android phones and tablets (apps can be downloaded from respective app stores or via www.TheStandardsChannel.com).

The Standards Channel is also available via TuneIn Radio, a featured service on many in-dash, Wi-Fi enabled, automobiles and digital, internet delivered, home entertainment devices.

John Gabriel is a multi-faceted performer, having appeared in numerous films, television shows, in stage productions and as commercial spokesperson. John is also a noted singer, songwriter and also served as producer for Charles Grodin’s successful run as cable TV talk host. One of John’s crowning achievements is his portrayal of Dr. Seneca Beaulac on the ABC daytime soap opera series “Ryan’s Hope.” John’s list of professional achievements and personable style make him the perfect choice to host this program.

“Hollywood To Broadway” is Executive Produced and conceived by veteran Philadelphia based musician, songwriter and producer, Billy Terrell.

###